

UNION PAMPHLETS.

The following new Pamphlets are published this Day by MILLIKEN, 32, Grafton-street.

IN FAVOUR OF AN UNION.

- 1 Ireland profiting by example, or the Question s. d.
 whether Scotland has gained or lost, by an Union with England, fairly discussed, in a Letter from a Gentleman in Edinburgh to his Friend in Dublin - I I
- 2 Reasons for adopting an Union between Ireland and Great Britain, by the Author of the Letter to Jos. Spencer, Esq. - I I
- 3 Letter from a retired Barrister in England to a practising Barrister in Dublin - I I
- 4 A few Thoughts on an Union, with some Observations on Mr. Weld's Pamphlet, addressed to the Yeomanry of Dublin I I
- 5 A Loyal Subject's Thoughts on an Union between Great Britain and Ireland I I
- 6 Calm Considerations on the probable Consequences of an Union between G. Britain and Ireland, by Conciliator - I I
- 7 Probable Consequences of an Union considered, by a Barrister - 6h
- 8 An Answer to some of the many Arguments made use of against a Pamphlet, entitled,
 "Arguments for and against an Union,"
 by an Attorney - I I
- 9 Letter to Joshua Spencer, Esq. occasioned by his Thoughts on a Union - I I
- 10 M'Kenna's Memoire on an Union I I

|    |                                                                                                        |   |    |
|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|----|
| 11 | Strictures on an Union, by an Officer                                                                  | I | I  |
| 12 | Union, or Separation                                                                                   | I | I  |
| 13 | Union or Not, by an Orangeman                                                                          | I | I  |
| 14 | V bum Sapientia, a Word to the Wife                                                                    |   | 6h |
| 15 | Impartial View of the Causes leading thisCountry to the Necessity of an Union                      | I | I  |
| 16 | Letters addressed to Messrs. Saurin and Jebb,on the Subject of an Union                            | I | 7h |
| 17 | Arguments for and against an Union betweenGreat Britain and Ireland considered, the8th Edition | I | I  |

---

PAMPHLETS AGAINST AN UNION.

|    |                                                                                      |   |   |
|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|---|
| 1  | Thoughts on an Union, by J. Spencer, Esq.                                            | I | I |
| 2  | No Union; an Appeal to Irishmen, by Weld                                             | I | I |
| 3  | An Answer to Arguments, &c. in two Lettersto Edward Cooke, Esq. by P. Rudd, Esq. | 2 | 2 |
| 4  | An Address to the People of Ireland                                                  | I | I |
| 5  | Observations on Arguments for and against aUnion                                 | I | I |
| 6  | The Probability, Causes, and Consequences ofan Union, by the Rev. Denis Taaffe   | I | I |
| 7  | An Union neither necessary nor expedient                                             | I | I |
| 8  | Reasons against an Union                                                             | I | I |
| 9  | A Letter to the Gentlemen of England andIreland, by Sir J. W. Jervis, Bart.      | I | I |
| 10 | Cease your Funning, or the Rebel Detected                                            | I | I |

|    |                                                                                         |   |   |   |    |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|---|---|----|
| 11 | First Letter to a Noble Lord, by G. Smyth, Esq.                                         | - | - | 1 | 1  |
| 12 | Letter to the Marquis Cornwallis                                                        | - | - | 1 | 1  |
| 13 | Strictures on Arguments for and against an Union.                                       | - | - | - | 6h |
| 14 | An Accurate Report of the Debate of the Irish Bar, at their Meeting, Dec. 9.            | - | - | 2 | 2  |
| 15 | Observations on an Union, by Cottingham.                                                | - | - | 1 | 1  |
| 16 | Jebb's Reply, to Argu. for and against, &c.                                             | - | - | 1 | 7h |
| 17 | The Rights of the Imperial Crown of Ireland Asserted and Maintained, by G. Barnes, Esq. | - | - | 2 | 2  |
| 18 | Address to the R. Catholics of Ireland.                                                 | - | - | 0 | 6h |
| 19 | Bethel's Reply to Cooke and M'Kenna.                                                    | - | - | 1 | 1  |
| 20 | Prophecy from Pue's Occurrences.                                                        | - | - | - | 6h |
| 21 | Observations on Arguments, &c. &c.                                                      | - | - | 1 | 1  |
| 22 | To be or not to be a Nation.                                                            | - | - | - | 6h |
| 23 | Unconnected Hints and Loose Ideas upon the Union                                        | - | - | 1 | 1  |
| 24 | Ireland Sabinized.                                                                      | - | - | - | -  |
| 25 | Keep up your Spirits, or Hurra for the Empire.                                          | - | - | 1 | 1  |
| 26 | Reply to Arguments, by Molyneux,                                                        | - | - | 1 | 1  |
| 27 | Speech of Joshua Spencer, Esq. at the County Meeting.                                   | - | - | 1 | 1  |
| 28 | More thoughts on the Union.                                                             | - | - | 1 | 1  |
| 29 | Hamilton's Letter to M'Kenna.                                                           | - | - | 1 | 1  |
| 30 | Demonstration of the Legislative Union.                                                 | - | - | 1 | 1  |

- 31 Union to the Subjection, proved. - I I
- 32 Proofs rise on Proofs, that an Union is totally incompatible with the Rights of Independent Ireland. - I I

